

Hugh Williams Ravensdown Memorial University Scholarship

Application Form

To commemorate the service and dedication of Hugh Williams, who died in a farm accident on 19 May 2000, Ravensdown and the Williams family have established a memorial scholarship. One scholarship will be awarded per year and the successful applicant will receive $5000 for each year of study. In addition the recipient will be offered the opportunity of paid holiday work at Ravensdown if available. This scholarship is intended to encourage undergraduate study in an agricultural or horticultural degree and will be open to the children of Ravensdown shareholders who are intending to undertake full time undergraduate study at either Lincoln or Massey University.

Hugh Williams Ravensdown Memorial University Scholarship Information Sheet

In 2000 Ravensdown and the Williams family established the Hugh Williams Ravensdown Memorial University Scholarship in memory of the late Hugh Williams, Ravensdown director from 1987 until 2000. The university scholarship, for shareholders' sons and daughters, aims to encourage undergraduate study in an agricultural or horticultural degree.

- One scholarship will be available each year.
- The scholarship recipient will receive a cash grant of $5,000 a year for the duration of their undergraduate study (see the conditions below).
- In addition, recipients will be offered the opportunity of paid holiday work at Ravensdown if a position is available.

Scholarship criteria

Applications for the scholarship will be invited from students who are:

- The son or daughter of a farmer involved in a Ravensdown shareholding (one entry per shareholder number)
- Intending to undertake an agricultural/horticultural undergraduate degree full time at Lincoln, Waikato or Massey universities*

Scholarship details

The scholarship is paid for the duration of an undergraduate course up to a maximum of four years. Payment of the scholarship for years subsequent to the first will be subject to satisfactory academic performance in the preceding year.

It is expected that the recipient will not accept other scholarships in addition to the Hugh Williams Ravensdown memorial university scholarship. This is to encourage as many young people as possible into the universities.

The scholarship is for agricultural/horticultural-based degrees (but excludes veterinary science or viticulture-based degrees.)*

Students who have completed one year's tertiary study or less are also eligible.

The recipient of the scholarship is required to meet with Ravensdown management to discuss progress each semester.

Selection committee

The selection committee comprises:

- A member of the Williams family
- Members of the Ravensdown Board of Directors
- A member of the Ravensdown Human Resources Team
